

Privacy Notice

Your doctor is the controller of your personal information (including but not limited to, NHS ID, device ID, and related order information (“ID Information”)). Your personal information will be shared with electroCore and its business partners, agents and distributors, together “electroCore” in order to a) supply you with gammaCore and b) arrange for you to be provided with training as to how to use gammaCore. electroCore is the controller of any personal information we are provided with (by you or the doctor) in order to administer training (including, but not limited to, your contact details and any ID Information).

Your personal information will only be shared with other third parties if otherwise permitted by applicable law, such as if necessary to protect your vital interests or those of another person or if necessary for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims.

Our legal basis for collecting and using your personal information will be consent.

Your information will be stored in the European Economic Area (“EEA”).

electroCore will retain your personal information for only as long as we have an ongoing legitimate need to do so, for example, whilst you are receiving gammaCore treatment. The personal information will then be either deleted or anonymised or, if this is not possible (for example, because your personal information has been stored in backup archives), then it will be securely stored until deletion is possible.

You may have the following rights in relation to your personal information: (i) to access, correct, update or request deletion of it; (ii) to object to processing of your personal information; (iii) to ask us to restrict processing of it; (iv) to request portability of it; and (v) to opt-out of marketing communications. You can exercise these rights by contacting us by using the contact details provided below. You can withdraw your consent at any time by written notice us using the contact details provided below. You may have similar rights as regards your doctor and to exercise those you should contact your doctor by your usual means of communication.

You have the right to complain to a data protection authority about our collection and use of your personal information. For more information, please contact your local data protection authority.

If you have any questions or concerns about our use of your personal information, please contact our Data Protection Officer using the following contact details: DPO@electroCore.com
